

STANDARD AND COST OF LIVING BOTH HAVE INCREASED

Railroad Man of Today Is Surrounded by Better Conditions Than in Former Times Say Firemen.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Both the cost and the standard of living among railroad employees have advanced in the last few years, according to testimony given before the senate railway committee today. Three firemen, N. West, chief of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad; Ross, of the Great Northern; and C. N. Smith, St. Louis, St. Louis Terminal company, all agreed that the cost of living has increased. The three men are in excellent health and are demanding the same wage as in 1914 to offset the increase.

The witnesses were examined by Albert Phillips, one of the assistants of W. A. Carter, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

NEW TRIAL ASKED BY MAN CHARGED WITH FRAUD THROUGH WALLS

Kansas City, Jan. 4.—A hearing on a motion for a new trial of E. C. Chambers, recently convicted of using the mails to defraud in connection with the sale of Florida overland lands, was begun in the federal court here today. The jury who returned the verdict against Chambers were summoned as witnesses at the hearing. It was said the defense would attempt to show that undue influence was brought to bear on the jury during the trial.

The Chambers case was an closely related to those of Rev. A. E. Gammon, C. H. Hubbard, E. L. Russell and F. W. Harper, agents in the sale of the lands, convicted by the same jury on similar charges. That the hearing was made to include all the defendants.

The attorney for the defendants sought to prove that the verdict convicting all five men was returned owing to a misunderstanding of instructions, the jurors believing that disagreement as to one defendant would cause a mistrial in all cases.

LA VETA MURDER CASE ATTRACTS BIG INTEREST

Pueblo, Colo., Jan. 4.—Much interest attached to the opening in the district court here today of the now famous La Veta murder case, so-called, an outgrowth of the recent Colorado coal strike and in which nine members of the United Mine Workers of America stand charged with killing three mine guards and a chauffeur and wounding a mine official.

The alleged murders took place near La Veta on November 3, 1913. The men who stand accused are: Charles Sheppard, Frank Kropp, Daniel Richards, Edward Richards, Charles Richards, Peter Rich, George Zembler, Marcus Martinovich and John Plockhart.

A legal battle was early precipitated into the proceedings when counsel for the strikers protested against lawyers in the pay of coal companies being engaged to aid attorneys for the state. A considerable argument resulted and at a late hour today the matter was still undecided.

Stillwell was shot several days ago while guarding his barn against thieves. Bloodhounds led directly, it was declared, to the cabins of the Smith negroes, who were arrested.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 4.—The fourth trial of Dr. B. Clarke Hyde, charged with the murder of Colonel Thomas H. Pease, was re-set for the first Monday in April, 1915, at the court here today. ## Compels Girl to Marry Him

"THE PRICE OF SILENCE."

It was a startling method of securing revenge, but Tom Plank, ruined by a second's machinations, was in no condition to think or act calmly when he forced Barbara Ragan to be his wife.

The trouble was caused by Bill Leeds, whom Barbara was to have married. Leeds, although one of the Plank workmen, was in the secret employ of a rival manufacturer who was seeking to ruin Plank. Ignorant of Leeds' real reason for urging his fellow employees to strike, Barbara helped him stir up trouble.

As the result of their efforts Plank was bankrupt. Knowledge of this came to the ears of Clara Trendwell, his wealthy fiancée, and she severed their engagement. While returning home from Clara's residence the young man saw two men engaged in a fight. It ended with the older of the two killing his adversary.

Plank pursued the murderer and discovered him to be John Ragan, Barbara's father. The girl and Leeds were listening to the old man's story when Plank entered. Here was the latter's opportunity to kill two birds with one stone. In compelling Barbara to wed him he not only would force her to share the misery she had helped bring upon him, but he would also strike right at Leeds' heart. This was the price of his silence concerning Ragan's crime.

To save her father from the electric chair Barbara was forced to consent. Her decision almost drove Leeds frantic, but the man was powerful. Strange to say, Plank and Barbara fell deeply in love with each other after their marriage, although both maintained a sullen silence. Later Leeds endeavored to win Barbara back, but his efforts went for naught, as is shown in Kalein's interesting two act feature of the Albee Joyce Series, "The Price of Silence." An all star cast of Kalein players surround Miss Joyce in this production.

Washington, Jan. 4.—To relieve German and Russian prisoners of war, a committee of missionaries, principally Americans, will start tomorrow from Peking for the interior of Siberia, bearing medical supplies and clothing furnished by the American Red Cross and to plan an extension of their work of mercy.

The prisoners are not confined, but generally have been paroled under pledge not to leave the neighborhood. Their only wants are food, clothing and medicine.

In explanation of the parole of prisoners, it is said that with its absolute control of the Siberian railway, which in winter affords the only possible escape from Siberia, the Russian government feels there is little possibility of escape.

WHEAT PRICES SOAR TO NEW WAR RECORD

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Wheat prices today overtopped all previous high records since the beginning of the European war. May delivery went to $1.32 3/4 a bushel as compared with $1.33 on September 3, last, when speculative excitement in regard to transatlantic developments was most acute.

During the advance in wheat prices here, a jump of 1 1/2c since Saturday night, trading appeared of a decidedly livelier character than has recently been the rule. The explanation in a measure was the fact that margins required on transactions are now only about half what was required not many weeks ago.

Rosenwald's "WHERE QUALITY MEETS PRICE"

WHEAT PRICES SOAR TO NEW WAR RECORD

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Wheat prices today overtopped all previous high records since the beginning of the European war. May delivery went to $1.32 3/4 a bushel as compared with $1.33 on September 3, last, when speculative excitement in regard to transatlantic developments was most acute.

During the advance in wheat prices here, a jump of 1 1/2c since Saturday night, trading appeared of a decidedly livelier character than has recently been the rule. The explanation in a measure was the fact that margins required on transactions are now only about half what was required not many weeks ago.

In the last hour of the session, reports of immense cash sales for ocean shipments gave prices a further big lift. Just before the final going brought business to a halt, wheat for May delivery, the chief speculative option, was snapped up in some cases as high as $1.34 3/4, a type of 3 3/4 a bushel since Saturday night. The close was strong with the market as a whole at an advance of 3 3/4 to 1 1/2 cents, net.

ST. LOUIS EXCHANGE ALSO SEEN OF NEW RECORD

St. Louis, Jan. 4.—Wheat prices on the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange today reached the highest figure since the beginning of the European war. May wheat sold at $1.39, four cents higher than the price on September 26, when excitement over the war was keen. The price increase was attributed to heavy export demand and the practical elimination of Argentine competition.
